2. Entries must be made by division and class.
3. No one will be permitted in the judging ring at time of judging except those authorized by the livestock superintendent or judges.
4. Board of directors may prorate premiums paid if total amount to be paid exceeds allotted budget.
5. All livestock rules in the premium book must be complied with. Read them carefully.
6. Animal Health Rules are listed in the State rules and must be followed. Copies of the State rules are available at the Showground's office.
7. All pens and stall areas are to be cleaned at least once a day and are to be kept clean at all times. Bring your own equipment needed for cleaning including but not limited to a wheelbarrow and rake.
8. All animals are to be washed at designated areas only. Instructors and leaders will be held responsible for cleanliness of animals, stalls and pens.
9. Each club and chapter will be judged daily for clean pens.

Large Livestock Local Rules:

1. Age as of January 1st 2010 must be on entry form. Exhibitors must be 9 years old to show large livestock.
2. Market acceptable entries are open to the State of California. Any Youth from age 9 to 19 that are members in good standing of 4-H Clubs, vocational agriculture (FFA), and Granges are eligible to enter all livestock and breeding classes offered
3. Breeding and Dairy entries are open to the United States. All youth from age 9 to 19 are eligible.
4. Exhibitors must be the bona fide owners of animals or exhibits entered by them unless otherwise specified and are part of a project under the supervision of a recognized organization. Animals must be under exhibitor's care and management at least 60 days for market lambs, market hogs and market calves in that organization before the opening day of the show, except in classes which do not require ownership by the exhibitor. The exhibitor's Agricultural Instructor, 4-H Leader or 4-H Advisor shall determine any question as to the eligibility of a project under this rule.
5. NO junior exhibitor may exhibit a market animal, which has been sold through a fair livestock auction whether or not there is an actual change of ownership.
6. Premium money will not be paid on any animal that does not meet the requirements of the class.
7. All exhibitors must be attired according to the dress code established by their respective organizations and conduct themselves in quiet and orderly manner at all times. All others will wear dark pants and a white button down shirt, long or short sleeve.
8. All premium checks will be mailed to the address shown on entry form.
9. You may extend your pens a maximum of 8 feet into the aisle between the barns. You must bring your own fencing and it must be safe. The management reserves the right to decide if the extensions are safe for the animals, exhibitors and the public. If deemed not safe it will have to be removed.
10. The management will take reasonable precaution to insure the safety of exhibits entered for competition of display. In no case will the management be responsible in any way for any loss, damage, injury or death to an exhibit while the same is on the grounds at anytime or place, nor be liable for or make any payment for the value thereof. Presentation of entry forms shall be deemed acceptance of this rule.
11. No personal scales will be allowed on the grounds. No pre-weighing of animals or re-weighs of animals will be allowed. All market and feeder animals will be divided into weight lots after weigh-in for convenience of judging.

12. All market classes will be divided into weight not organizations, FFA, 4-H, Grange, and Independent will be shown together.
13. Management reserves the right to limit entries to facilities available and may limit the number of entries made by an exhibitor. Any return of entries under this rule will be done generally and without discrimination. Under any limitation of entries, acceptance will generally be based on date entries are received, except that some later entries may be accepted to insure an equitable representation of specie or breed.
14. All entries must be postmarked and or received no later than April 5, 2010. Management reserves the right to accept entries after the closing date if it is deemed advisable in the best interest of the show. All entries accepted after the postmark date must include a $15.00 service charge.
15. No animals will be allowed on the Fairgrounds unless they are entered to show or exhibit.
16. All Exhibitors will do all of their own Fitting and Grooming while on show grounds.
17. The Management reserves the right to combine and/or cancel classes as seen fit for the good of competition and the fair.

Grange Division Rules

Grange members must be active members of a grange project and must wear the official grange uniform. Entry form must be signed by grange advisor.

1. Animals must be either owned by the grange member and must be under his/her care and management as a project for at least 60 days prior to opening day of the show.
2. Each grange group entering the show must be under the supervision of an authorized grange representative.
3. Attire: Grange members must wear dark blue trousers, white dress shirt (long or short sleeves) and a red waist vest with the Grange emblem on the back with the word Grange above the emblem and the word Youth below the emblem in gold letters. Hats and headgear of any kind are not to be worn while showing. No acid or stone wash or excessively worn jeans. No T-shirts or sweatshirts allowed.

FFA Division Rules

FFA members currently enrolled in vocational agriculture in high school or college and a member in good standing in a FFA Chapter are eligible to enter these divisions and must abide by the rules of the State in which they reside. Any questions as to eligibility of a project shall be determined by the exhibitor's advisor. High school vocational agriculture instructor must sign entry forms.

1. Rules governing conduct of FFA exhibitors and chaperon requirements listed in CATA Curricular Activities Code apply.

2. Attire: All FFA exhibitors must be in full FFA show uniform when showing their animals in FFA divisions. The official FFA uniform is a white shirt or blouse with blue tie/scarf, the official FFA jacket zipped to the top and white pants. The jacket may be omitted if the white shirt or blouse has the official FFA emblem sewn to the left pocket area.

4-H Division Rules

4-H Club members currently enrolled and in good standing in a 4-H club are eligible to enter this show. Members in their final 4-H club year may make entries during the calendar year in which they become 19 years of age. The exhibitor's leader shall determine any question as to eligibility of a project. The youth advisor or project leader must sign entry forms, even if exhibitor is over 18. Person signing entry form must signify his/her title.

1. Each 4-H group entering the show must be under the supervision of an authorized representative.
2. Attire: 4-H exhibitors must wear the official uniform of their organization while showing. The official 4-H uniform is a white shirt or blouse, white pants or skirt, green 4-H tie/scarf and the 4-H cap.
